

EYS March Newsletter

"Aiming for a greater understanding and enjoyment of music"

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

A brief newsletter for March. Spring is upon us and so are the ABRSM exams and the Exeter Festival. Good luck to all those who are taking part in either or both!!!

Concerts and Events

Don't forget the concert coming up on the Saturday 21st March. This concert is taking place at the South Street Baptist Church at 3.00pm. The concert is to be attended by the Lord Mayor and the Lady Mayoress. There is to be a simple buffet tea to give parents and members a chance to mingle and network afterwards! Members are asked to bring something sweet or savoury as a donation to the buffet.

Our patron, Guy Johnston is in Exeter on Monday 20th April to give a cello lesson to one of Kirsty's advanced pupils. He is also keen to give a workshop to all EYS members. This is penciled in at 4.30 pm on the day, but we need to know the level of interest to assess feasibility. The cost is projected to be around £4 to take part and £2 to observe. To make this workshop financially viable we would need the majority of people to take part. If you are interested please contact Kirsty on 01392 460444.

Other news

Thank you to everyone who took part and helped with the coffee morning. We can't give exact figures for the money raised for CLIC Sargent as we won't know until after the next concert. We did however make just over £60 from refreshments which will go towards some urgent repairs on some of our instruments.

Our website designer has pointed out that there are still only two testimonies on our website. If any happy parent, colleague or member would care to provide a testimony to go on our website, we would be very grateful. Perhaps you have had a wonderful experience of individual lessons or are particularly impressed with the violin and cellobabies books we are using. If you are particularly happy with the books, Kay would be very keen to include testimonies on her website also and she will, of course, acknowledge EYS!
